Extract based on a poem by local poet Mary Booth

Town and country people meeting,
Happy smiles and friendly greeting,
Each and every year comes this great day.
Friendly ponies rubbing noses,
Dalmation dogs in stately poses,
Cattle wending on their winning way.
Competitors who've toiled for hours
Wear their prize rosettes like flowers,
Silver cups are won or lost today.
Family parties, friends and neighbours,
Take a day off from their labours,
Down the bonnie valley wend their way.
For Show Day comes but once a year,
And country lovers hold it dear;
Everyone's at the Show today!
